IV. Essay: The essay is a significant component of the application process. Essays are evaluated on the basis of content, writing skill, and creativity. Your essay must be double-spaced and should not exceed the suggested length. Please put your full name on the top right-hand corner of each page, and submit your essay with this supplemental form.

In 500 words, share your personal experience of coming to faith in Christ and how your experiences since have been formative in growing and developing your faith.

V. Community Covenant and Signature: Please read Wheaton's Community Covenant (attached). This Covenant is designed to express the crucial Christian convictions, aspirations, commitments and responsibilities shared by the members of the Wheaton College campus family. In applying for membership in this community, you should therefore weigh carefully whether these convictions, aspirations and commitments match your own, and whether you can gladly join in fulfilling the Covenant's responsibilities.

"I affirm by my signature below that I have carefully read Wheaton's Community Covenant, that this Covenant expresses my own Christian convictions, aspirations and commitments, and that if I am accepted and subsequently enroll as a student at Wheaton College I will gladly join in fulfilling its responsibilities." (Please explain any questions, reservations or disagreements in an attached statement.)

"I also affirm by my signature that all the information contained in my application, including my essay, is my own work, factually true, and honestly presented."
